- Introduction...
- Review...
- In a Sentence: The purpose of our pain is not to first find _____ but to first trust in his _____ that seeks our good and His glory.

Job 3:1-26...

- A _____ (Job 3:1-10)

Life is so painful that Job wishes the roots of his existence had been recaptured by death and darkness, that he had never existed in the presence of God. He wishes God would rewind the tape of creation and undo the part that led to his existence. (Ash)

- A _____ (Job 3:11-19)

“Better to have loved and lost than to have never loved at all.”

- An Agonized _____ (Job 3:20-26)

*When you are happy, so happy that you have no sense of needing Him ... if you remember yourself and turn to Him with gratitude and praise, you will be—or so it feels—welcomed with open arms. But go to him when your need is desperate, when all other help is vain, and what do you find? A door slammed in your face, and a sound of bolting and double bolting on the inside. After that, silence. You may as well turn away. The longer you wait, the more emphatic the silence will become. There are no lights in the windows. It might be an empty house. Was it ever inhabited? It seemed so once. (C. S. Lewis, A Grief Observed).*
