

“With Friends Like You...”

Job 11:1-14:22

Part 8 in Trusting God in the Storm

Pastor Bruce Dick

- Introduction...

- Review...
  - Job’s friends’ logic: If bad things are happening to you, then it must be your _____ and your _____. But if you do the right thing, God will _____ you once again.

- In a Sentence: The value of suffering is not to make us _____ but, in our weakness, to find our _____ and _____ in Him.

Job 11:1-14:22...

- The _____ against Job (Job 11:1-20)

- Zophar can’t see and doesn’t know what is really going on.

➤ Job _____ (Job 12:1-14:22)

○ This is _____ doing (Job 12:1-25)

○ Tell Me What I Did _____! (13:1-28)

“Yes, I’ve seen all this with my own eyes, heard and understood it with my very own ears.<sup>2</sup> Everything you know, I know, so I’m not taking a backseat to any of you.<sup>3</sup> I’m taking my case straight to God Almighty; I’ve had it with you—I’m going directly to God.” (13:1-3 – The Message)

▪ Two Questions:

- How many _____ have been charged against me?

- Why do you treat me like your _____?

○ It’s _____ (14:1-22)

- Job doesn’t yet know about Jesus Christ and the hope of resurrection (14:11-15)

➤ Two different perspectives coming out of Job’s story...
